Dominic G. Erbacci focuses his legal practice in assisting clients with commercial and personal issues that may lead to, or are currently involved in, contested litigation. He assists businesses and individuals in identifying and resolving commercial law disputes, contract formation, construction law disputes, mechanic's liens, mortgage foreclosures, evictions, insurance disputes, corporate/partnership dissolution, and myriad other legal issues that arise in the carrying on of day-to-day life and business.

Prior to attending law school, Dominic worked for a well-known Fortune 500 corporation where he honed a strong business acumen that allows him to accomplish directives while planning for, identifying, and resolving ever emergent business challenges associated with the current and future economic climate.

Dominic strategically partners with his clients to identify issues, create clear goals, and develop strategies and road maps to attain favorable outcomes both in and out of the courtroom.

Dominic has earned several professional honors, including recognition as a 2027 Illinois Rising Stars honoree, marking his fourth year receiving this distinction. He was also recognized by his peers in the 2027 edition of Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch® in America as top legal talent for his work in Bankruptcy and Creditor Debtor Rights / Insolvency and Reorganization Law, Construction Law and Real Estate Law. This marks Dominic's second consecutive year receiving this recognition.
