Steve Jakubowski concentrates his practice in distressed financings and workouts. He has been lead and co-counsel in bankruptcy cases nationwide, stretching from Delaware to Hawaii, including in multiple high profile cases nationwide on behalf of lenders, debtors, creditors and equity committees, acquirors, and litigation targets. Those matters have involved Steve in a variety of industries, including most recently commercial real estate development, financial services, dairy, swine, meat packing, farming, pharmaceuticals, retail, auto, medical technology, and metal fabrication.

Steve has remained a corporate lawyer to several companies following their emergence from bankruptcy or out-of-court restructurings. He also is the founder of Bankruptcy Litigation Blog, the internet's first bankruptcy blog (2005), which has over 1 million page views to date.

Since 2009, Steve has advocated for the forgotten accident victims whose claims were left behind by the government in the General Motors's bailout. Click here for more information: <https://forgottengmbailoutvictims.org/>

Steve is AV Peer Review Rated, representing Martindale-Hubbell's highest peer recognition for ethical standards and legal ability.

Steve also has for several years been recognized as a top rated corporate bankruptcy and restructuring attorney by Super Lawyers.
