

Eric G. Patt

Partner | Park Ridge
847.832.5602 |
epatt@robbinsdimonte.com

Eric G. Patt has a broad-based transactional practice, with a focus on contracts, business acquisition, real estate, and employment-related issues. He also has extensive experience representing municipal governing bodies in the Chicago area, and in counseling their various boards and commissions in municipal law and land use issues. Additionally, Eric has extensive litigation experience, having conducted numerous bench and jury trials in state and federal courts, with substantial appellate experience.

Eric is Chair of the Firm's Municipal Law Practice Group and is actively involved in all aspects of RD's municipal client representation. He also is the author of Chapter 9: "Representing a Home Rule Municipality" for IICLE's Municipal Law: Contracts, Litigation, and Home Rule, 2024 and 2020 Editions.

Education

- Chicago-Kent College of Law, J.D., with Honors, 1990
- Indiana University B.S., Business Analysis, 1987

Admissions

- Illinois, 1990
- U.S. District Court, Northern District of Illinois, Trial Bar Member
- U.S. Court of Appeals, Seventh Circuit

Memberships

- Illinois State Bar Association
- Decalogue Society of Lawyers