Maeve M. Degnan concentrates her practice in the areas of Business Transactions and Real Estate. She collaborates with seasoned firm associates and shareholders to assist clients with the sale of residential and commercial real estate matters, and the formation and governance of business entities. In law school, Maeve participated in the school's Business Law Clinic where she partnered with clients in starting limited liability companies and not-for-profit corporations. Maeve enjoys working closely with clients to assess their needs for each transaction with the goal to obtain the most positive outcome.
