Mary Wilms is a Receptionist and Accounts Receivable Specialist at Robbins DiMonte. She joined the firm in 2019 as a receptionist, where she quickly became known for her kind and professional approach to greeting clients and vendors. Mary takes pride in making each person feel welcomed and heard as they navigate their legal needs.

In 2023, Mary expanded her role to support the accounting department, focusing on accounts receivable. She now collaborates with the accounting team and attorneys to effectively handle client billing inquiries and payment reminders while maintaining positive client relationships.
