Ally Daskalopoulos joined Robbins DiMonte in 2024 as a paralegal in the Litigation Department. Her work focuses on commercial litigation, construction law, business transactions, and more recently, real estate matters. Ally actively looks for opportunities to expand her experience by helping in every area of the Litigation Department.

Ally supports both partners and associates with trial preparation, drafting discovery responses, pleadings, agreements and contracts, and preparing correspondence. She works closely with clients, coordinates with opposing counsel, manages schedules and deadlines, and provides general administrative support to the firm. Fluent in Greek and Spanish, Ally regularly assists the firm with Greek-and-Spanish-speaking clients.

Ally brings ten years of legal experience to the firm. Prior to joining Robbins DiMonte, she worked for the government's criminal legal sector. With a background in journalism, she enjoys applying her writing skills to the legal field. Passionate about all facets of the law, she takes pride in her strong work ethic and commitment to the profession.

In her spare time, she produces a true crime podcast while also writing her first book.
