Bridgid C. Mulvany joined Robbins DiMonte in 2017 and is the firm's Business Intake & Marketing Specialist.

In her business intake role, she manages every stage of the firm's conflict clearance process, conducting in-depth research, resolving potential conflicts, and opening all new matters with precision. She ensures accurate documentation, smooth coordination among attorneys and staff, and timely communication throughout the process.

In her marketing role, Bridgid leads the firm's marketing and development efforts from concept to completion. She maintains and updates the firm's website, produces the quarterly newsletter, develops marketing campaigns, and designs promotional materials. She also organizes attorney participation in networking events, seminars, and community outreach.

Bridgid continually seeks opportunities to expand her expertise, helping the firm operate seamlessly while strengthening its visibility and reputation.
