Magdalena “Maggie” M. Skowron joined Robbins DiMonte in 2025 and provides administrative and legal support to the firm. She brings over 20 years of experience supporting residential and commercial real estate transactions and assists attorneys with all aspects of the closing process, including drafting and reviewing contracts, monitoring critical dates, preparing transactional documents, examining title, submitting closing packages, and handling post-closing matters.

In addition to her real estate experience, Maggie supports attorneys in matters involving estate planning, probate administration, bankruptcy, and corporate matters.

Originally from Poland, Maggie is fluent in Polish and assists Polish-speaking clients by facilitating clear and effective communication between clients and attorneys.
